Subject Amendment of the Octroi byelaws so as to levy octroi on Saffron and musk

Octroi duty was being levied on saffron classifying it under the category of 'oilman stores' vide item No 23 of schedule of dutable items appended to the octroi byelaws contained in page 103 of the 1953 Edition of the Byelaws As it was contended that saffron cannot be brought under the above head and subjected to the levy of octroi, as it was not a manufactured product, proposals were placed before the Council for adding the words "Saffron and musk" at the end of item No 23(d) of the schedule The Council having approved the same the amendment was duly notified in the official Gazette and Local dailes in February 1954 As no objections were received within the time prescribed the Council have finally approved of the amendment at their meeting held on 4-5-1954

I enclose a copy of the resolution as also Gazette Notification copies published on 2-2-1954 and request you kindly to obtain orders of Government sanctioning the amendment as notified A copy of the bye-law No 23(d) as it now stands with the proposed amendment is appended
